QZAP Marches into Spring

Contributed by QZAP
Sunday, 22 March 2009
Last Updated Sunday, 22 March 2009

Once again it's been too long since we've posted an update about all the cool things going on at QZAP. As always, we're quietly busy with all sorts of projects. QZAP:meta #1 sold out. We're so thankful for all of those who've made donations. We're going to be doing a 2nd printing, and should have that back from the printer by the middle of next week. Also, we've got awesome new 1" buttons. A set of 4 is $5 including postage (worldwide) To get your copy of QZAP:meta #1 or to order buttons please use the "Donate Now" button on the left or send $3.00 / $5.00(USD) to:QZAP2935 N. Fratney St.Milwaukee, WI 53212USA In the middle of March, Milo went to the Zine Librarian (un)Conference in Seattle. He got to meet with other zine librarians and archivists and got some good ideas and feedback on QZAP that we'll be slowly rolling into the site and archive over the next several months. In April he'll be going to Tuscaloosa, AL to do a weekend of queer/zine events at U of A. Since we can't be everywhere at once, we'll be sending zines, stickers, and other propaganda to the Queer Arts and Lit Faire in Los Angeles (dates to be announced) and also to the Radical Queer Convergence taking place in Chicago (May 28-31). For these and other events, please check the Events calendar. There's always something going on, and may be coming to you!